NEWS OF THE DAY.

A very enjoyable dance was given at King's College last night, over one hundred couples being present.

Our old friends, the 1st bat. of the West Yorks leave India for England this month. They are going to Lichfield.

The Admiralty has prohibited sailors from taking part in boxing matches for remuneration. This prohibition does not affect the usual boxing competitions in the Navy.

The science at Hankow, Hangyang and Wuchang described in the Shanghai papers to hand are very terrible. A protest has been printed at the continuous work being done on these ghastly fields by cinematograph operators.

The following telegram was received by the American Consulate General from the Manila Observatory at 10.35 a.m. today.—Manila, December 7, 9.20 a.m. Cyclone or typhoon E. of Southern Luzon, moving W. W. N.

On November 15th the rebel flag was hoisted over every club, shop and home of the Chinese residents of Calcutta, and in honour of the reported fall of Peking the shops were closed and general rejoicing and celebrations were indulged in.

An attempt is at present being made to get the Crown Agents for the Colonies to receive tenders from merchants. At present only tenders from actual manufacturers of the goods required are considered; the object being to eliminate the middleman and save his charges.

Mr. O. Locker-Lampson, Unfiliated M.P. for the Ramsey division of Huntingdon, has been awarded £1,000 damages against the Peterborough Citizen and the Huntingdon News, two Liberal organs, in consequence of their having published libellous articles concerning him during the last general election.

A rumour having been circulated in the Colony that the proprietor of the Empire Theatre organised the boxing contest there on Saturday night, Mr. Ramsay wishes it to be clearly understood that he did not organise the fight. The hall was hired by Mr. Nicoll, of the Imperial Hotel, and Mr. Ramsay had nothing whatever to do with the boxing contest.

The R.E. N.C.O.'s Mess held another of their popular Whist Drives on Tuesday evening, no fewer than thirty tables being set out to the full complement of players. The prize winners were:—Ladies, 1st, Mrs. Edger; 2nd, Mrs. Fuller; 3rd, Miss Langdon; 4th, Miss Keane; 5th, Miss Mint. Gentlemen, 1st, Mr. West; 2nd, Mr. McLean; 3rd, Mr. Langdon; 4th, Mr. Lock; 5th, Sgt. Crockett; 6th, Mr. Churcker; 7th, Sgt. S. Sgt. Morgan.

Referring to the appointment of Mr. Claud Severn as Colonial Secretary of Hongkong, the Straits Times says:—During his association with the Colony, as, indeed, with the F.M.S., Mr. Severn has been brought into touch with a wide circle of friends not only by reason of his official duties, to which he has always devoted himself most assiduously, but especially on account of the great interest he has taken in healthy recreation. He is a keen tennis player, and played in the final of the Veteran Championship at the last tournament when he and Mr. Hooper were beaten by the Governor and the Hon. F. J. Pigott. He is frequently seen on the golf links and often takes part in cricket matches on the Esplanade. By his leaving Singapore, music-lovers will lose one who has done so much towards sustaining a keen interest in the art, his numerous contributions at concerts and other functions being always greatly appreciated. Every one will wish him the greatest success in his new sphere of activity though it is certain he will leave Singapore not without some feelings of regret at parting with so many genuine friends.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Mr. N. G. Nolan, chief interpreter at the Supreme Court, has been granted twelve months' leave of absence from April 3, next year. Mr. Wong Kwong Tin, second interpreter, will act as chief interpreter during the absence of Mr. Nolan.

Mr. William Kewick, M.P. for the Epsom Division of Surrey, is to receive his portrait in oils from his constituents in appreciation of his services and as a mark of esteem. Mr. Harold Stodd was commissioned to paint the portrait.

WARDMASTER'S BAD END.

On Wednesday morning, about 10 o'clock, the dead body of William Edward Cooke, wardmaster at the Kennedy Town Infectious Hospital, was found in the bathroom. All appearances point to suicide from poisoning. Deceased was a single man about 36 years of age and it was not known that he had any trouble. The previous night he requested the boy not to disturb him after having laid his supper, since when he was not seen. The windows and doors were all fastened and locked when found by a boy who dressed in his pyjamas.

SOMETHING TO REMEMBER.

When buying a cough medicine for children bear in mind that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is most effective for colds, croup, and whooping cough, and that it does not contain any harmful drugs. For sale by all Chemists and Dispensaries.

LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL.

There was a brief agenda at the meeting of the Legislative Council this afternoon, at which His Excellency the Governor (Sir F. D. Lugard) presided. A Bill was read a first time entitled an Ordinance to amend the Ordinance relating to Public Health and Buildings.

The Council also agreed to the first reading of a Bill entitled An Ordinance to amend the Statute Laws (New Revised Edition) Ordinance, 1911.

Consideration was given in committee to the Bill entitled An Ordinance to further amend the University Ordinance, 1911.

The only other measure considered was the Bill entitled An Ordinance to consolidate and amend the Ordinances relating to Companies, which was discussed in committee.

At a Finance Committee subsequently held the following votes were passed:—

ACCIDENT TO THE GLENFAL
LOCH.

Drops her Propeller off Helian.

The well-known Swatow-Straits liner Glenfalloch, Captain Townsend, has met with a nasty accident. When just off Gaalong Bay, on the east coast of Hainan, twelve days ago, she had the misfortune to drop her propeller. The ship was manoeuvred into Gaalong Bay, where she anchored down, and Captain Townsend, proceeded ashore for assistance. It took him ten days to traverse the island, and on reaching Hainan he at once communicated with Hongkong. A tug has been dispatched to the assistance of the Glenfalloch, with appliances for effecting repairs. The Glenfalloch left Singapore on the 18th ult., with 775 passengers on board bound for Hongkong and in the ordinary course of events she ought to have accomplished the voyage in six days, or, allowing for exceptionally bad weather, eight. The vessel was formerly one of the Wee Bin Line, but on the sale of that fleet she was purchased by the owners of the Ho Hong line.

NATIONAL INSURANCE.

FATE OF THE OPPOSITION MOTION.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)

LONDON, Dec. 7.

Mr. Forster, moving in the House of Commons his amendment to the National Insurance Bill, emphasised the argument that it was not intended as a wrecking measure. The motion was a demand that the Government could accept without loss of prestige and with benefit to the measure.

Mr. Lloyd George described the amendment as a shifty method of moving the destruction of the Bill. Regulations could not be prepared until the Bill was in operation. Assuming that there were mistakes they were not irreparable. Reconsideration of the scheme would only mean the reopening of old controversies and the throwing away of months of labour.

Mr. Ramsay MacDonald said the Bill was a class of measure which would be more numerous in the future. The choice would presently lay between no legislation or legislation only partially satisfactory.

Mr. Bonar Law pointed out the Opposition's awkward position. If they said No, it implied that they were opposed to the principle of the Bill. If they said Yes, it implied that they approved of the Bill as it stood. If the amendment were considered apart from party it would have the overwhelming support of a majority in the House of Commons. The Opposition would vote for the amendment, but so far as he was concerned, he would not participate in any further division, leaving it to the Government to shoulder its responsibility.

Mr. Forster's amendment was rejected on a division by a vote of 320 to 223.

THE EUROPEAN WAR.

ITALIANS FOLLOW UP VICTORY.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)

LONDON, Dec. 7.

Reuter's correspondent at Rome telegraphs that following up Monday's victory, the Italians, after an aeroplane reconnaissance cleared out the Arabs in the neighbourhood of Ain Zara.

They engaged three thousand Turks and Arabs, some five miles from Ain Zara, but the artillery coming up, the Turks fled, leaving much ammunition, grain and other stores.

THE EMPIRE'S COMMERCIAL RELATIONS.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)

LONDON, Dec. 6.

In the House of Lords, Lord Killarney asked when, in pursuance of the resolution passed at the Imperial Conference, the Royal Commission would be appointed to enquire into the commercial relations, shipping and means of transport throughout the Empire.

Lord Esmont, in reply, said he was sorry he could not give a categorical answer to the question. Correspondence with regard to some of the details was proceeding normally and satisfactorily, though it was a lengthy business in a world-wide Empire and some further delay was inevitable before an announcement could be made.

GERMANY'S POLICY.
A FORWARD DEVELOPMENT.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)
LONDON, Dec. 6.
Dr. Bethmann-Hollweg, in continuing his speech in the Reichstag, said until Mr. Lloyd George's speech Germany would willingly have given any explanations with regard to its Moroccan policy for which she was asked, but the remarks of the British Government were not interpreted as a question. While Germany sincerely desired amicable relations with England, this could only be obtained through Britain's recognition of Germany's position in the world and her legitimate aspirations. Other nations must reckon with the forward development of Germany, who would continue to work in the peaceful spirit of the last 40 years by keeping herself strong.

LATER.
The match between M.C.O. and Toowoomba was played on an easy wicket and the attendance was fair.
Marylebone knocked up 340 for the loss of six wickets, and then declared the innings closed. Woolley made 99 in free style, his score including four 6's and ten 4's while Kinnear made 80 by free cricket, though his innings was lucky; he gave three chances. Iremonger scored 50 not out.
The Toowoomba eleven had scored 45 for 6 wickets at the close of the day's play.

TRUCKLING TO THE IRISH.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)
LONDON, Dec. 6.
In the House of Commons, Mr. O'Brien asked, in order to allay anxiety in Ireland owing to a recent Ministerial announcement, whether the Cabinet would undertake to pass Home Rule in the House of Commons in three successive sessions before the dissolution of Parliament.
Mr. Asquith, in reply, said he trusted that the Bill would have a smoother course than Mr. O'Brien appeared to anticipate, but, if necessary, the Government would use all the constitutional means in their power to pass the measure within the life time of the present Parliament. (Loud Nationalist cheers.)

FOREIGN POLITICS.

SPEECH BY SIR EDWARD GREY.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)
LONDON, December 6.
Sir Edward Grey, speaking at Plymouth, said that Persia was in the throes of a severe crisis, which was occupying the attention of the Government, whose views would be fully explained next week. He said the settlement of the Franco-German differences in Morocco should have a beneficial influence on Anglo-German relations. If the Moroccan depression was passing the diplomatic barometer should rise. He paid a tribute to the attitude of the Conservatives in excluding foreign affairs from party politics, saying the Foreign Secretary was bound to be hampered in maintaining the interests of the country abroad if he was subjected to constant attacks at home.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)
LONDON, December 6.
The special correspondent of the "Morning Post" at Teheran states that Persia on Monday presented an ultimatum to Russia, demanding that her troops should not proceed beyond Kasvin and that further reinforcements should be countermanded. The ultimatum stated that unless the terms were acceded to within thirty hours, Persia would take the offensive.

LATER.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)
LONDON, Dec. 6.

SHAMEN NOTES.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

ST. ANTHON'S DAY.
Thanks to the printer's strike at Hongkong my notes heralding the advent of revels at the Shrine of St. Andrew were crowded out, but suffice it to say that everything went off as predicted. At midday our Scottish friends entertained all and sundry at the Canton Club to the wine that inebriates, cheers and also can make one feel supremely miserable!

At 7.30 p.m. some seventy people sat down to a most enjoyable dinner, also provided by our friends across the Border.
This entertainment was held at the Victoria
Hotel under the presidency of Chieftain
Mr. J. W. Jamieson, C.M.G. A most excellent repast was served and the "Picnic de resistance," the "Haggis" was much appreciated. Judging by the number of helpings some of the guests indulged in Mrs. Vice-Consul Combe ought to feel very flattered by the splendid reception she receives of her culinary art met with.

Chieftain J. W. Jamieson, C.M.G. gave the toast of the King, Duke of Rothesay, Lord of the Isles, etc. The toast of Scotland was also given by the chairman, as also was our guests.

Sassanah A. V. Hogg responded for the guests in terms suitable for such an important occasion. The dinner at the Hotel was followed by a Smoking Concert at the Canton Club Theatre whence all the dinner guests wended their way about 9.30 p.m.
headed by two most picturesque looking Pipers from the Baluchis.

A very enjoyable programme was gone through to a most appreciative, if somewhat ebullient audience. Mr. C. Lamont sang with pleasing effect "The Bonnie Banks of Loch Lomond," and upon receiving a well deserved encore gave "Bonnie Mary of Argyle." Messrs R. M. Crose and O. Eger were well received for their rendering of "A Medal for That." Mr.
Hoffman sang with pleasing effect as also did C. P. O. Cheswright of H.M.S. northern.

Quite a musical treat was given by Mr.
K. Gruter whose violin solos were much appreciated.
The success of the evening was undoubtedly the inevitable Mr. W. A. Hannibal, who made himself heard with great effect in spite of the somewhat noisy audience.
A turn that brought down the "House," although quite unexpected and not even down upon the programme, was the stirring speech made by our worthy chairman of the Council, and incidentally Commandant of the Defence Corps. Many of the audience were reduced to tears: some of marines were quite overcome by emotion at the final peroration.

THE REVOLUTION.
All is so far comparatively quiet. Of course the usual number of robberies and murders are going steadily on but such matters are too common to be commented upon.

The latest rumour is that the Revolutionaries intend to "Demonstrate" along the Shaki (facing the Shamene Band) as a protest against the protection afforded by the British Consul to the late Viceroy of Canton and also against the patrolling of the West River against Pirates by British gunboats.

Already a boycott against German goods is in operation upon receipt of the news that the dead bodies of some German Military officers were found after the battle of Hanyang.
